

Medal joy for youngsters

TOP gymnasts from Rebound Gymnastics Club helped themselves to a host of medals during the Metropolitan County Competition held at the Munrow Centre, Birmingham University.

● Alanah holds her County Level 5 trophy together with her coach Erin Simpson and Head Coach Mark Simpson. (s)

● From the left – Jessica Bayliss, Hannah Bond, Alanah Coley, Rebecca Cook and Caroline Curry proudly display their medals. (s)

Gymnastics

The team entered events on the vault, bars, beam and floor and won medals in every event.

The winners were Caroline Curry, 12, Rebecca Cook, 10, Jessica Bayliss, 9, Hannah Bond, 8 and Alanah Coley, 7.

The youngest Rebound gymnast competing was Alanah Coley who took the gold medal in her category becoming the Level 5 County Champion at the same time.

Alanah's coach Erin Simpson was particularly pleased with her performance and said she is a natural performer who only joined the club last September.

Rebound Gymnastics Club offers both competitive and recreational gymnastics and anyone wishing to know more about the club can visit www.reboundgym.co.uk or contact Erin on 0121 744 6567.

● Caroline Curry, Rebecca Cook and Jessica Bayliss, middle row – Hannah Bond and in front Alanah Coley.

On the medal trail

GIRLS from Rebound Gymnastics Club recently took part in the Metropolitan County Competition held at the Munrow Centre, Birmingham University, and walked away with of medals in each category they entered.

The gymnasts competed on vault, bars, beam and floor and the medals winners were Caroline Curry, aged 12, Rebecca Cook, aged ten, Jessica Bayliss, aged nine, Hannah Bond, aged eight, and Alanah Coley, aged seven.

The youngest Rebound gymnast competing was Alanah Coley who took the gold medal in her category becoming the Level 5 County Champion.

Her coach, Erin Simpson, was particularly pleased with Alanah's performance, saying she only joined the club last September and is a natural performer.

The club offers both competitive and recreational gymnastics and anyone wishing to know more should visit www.reboundgym.co.uk or speak to Erin on 0121 744 6567.